Morning Prayer.

Sentences of the Scripture.

When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

The Sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Repent your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness: and repenteth him of the evil.

To the Lord our God belong mercies, and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us.

O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, Tell thou bring me to nothing.

Repent ye: for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

I will arise and go to my Father and will say

Morning Prayer.

unto him; Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord; for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

If we say, that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

The Exhortation.

Dearely beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of almighty God our heavenly father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me:

A general Confession.

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep.

Morning Prayer.

we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us: but thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders, Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults: restore thou them that are penitent: According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord: and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

The Absolution, or Remission of Sins.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, and hath given power and commandment to his ministers to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: he pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, & unfeignedly believe his holy gospel: wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true Repentance, and his holy spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses.

Morning Prayer.

As we forgive them, that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, And the Power, And the Glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Then say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Versicle.

O God make speed to save us.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to help us.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Praise ye the Lord.

Venite exultemus.

O Come let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew our selves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all Gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The Sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts:

Morning Prayer.

hearts: as in the probation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do erre in their hearts, for they have not known my ways.

Unto whom I swore in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Glorp be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praise thee, O God: we knowledg thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin and Seraphim: continually do cry.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glorie.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.

The godly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee.

The Father: of an infinite majesty.

Thine honourable, true: and only Son,

Morning Prayer.

Alse the holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We helieve that thou shalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbr'd with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

O Lord save thy people : and bless thine heritage.

Gobern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnifie thee.

And we worship thy name : ever world without end.

Touche safe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

O Lord in thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

Benedicite omnia opera.

O All ye works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord :
praise him and magnifie him for ever.

O ye Angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord :

Morning Prayer.

And hath raised up a mighty saluation for us : in the house of his seruant David.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets : which haue been since the world began ;

That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate us.

To perform the mercy promised to our fore-fathers : and to remember his holy covenant ;

To perform the oath which he sware to our fore-father Abraham : that he would giue us.

That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies : might serue him without fear.

In holiness and righteousness before him : all the days of our life.

And thou child shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways ;

To giue knowledge of saluation unto his people : for the remission of their sins.

Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day spring from on high hath visited us ;

To giue light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Jubilate Deo.

O Be ioyful in the Lord all ye lands : serue the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

We are sure that the Lord he is God, it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves : we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

And his mercy is on them that fear him : throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm : he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat :
and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things : and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel : as he promised to our forefathers, Ab-

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for aid against all perils.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Quicunque vult.

Who soever will be saved: before all things it is necessary that he hold the catholick faith: which faith except everyone do keep whole and undefiled: without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholick faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity;

Neither confounding the persons: nor dividing the substance.

Quicunque vult.

For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son : another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the holy Ghost, is all one : the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son : and such is the Holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate : and the Holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible : and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible.

The Father eternal, the Son eternal : and the Holy Ghost eternal.

And yet they are not three eternals : but one eternal.

As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated : but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is almighty, the Son almighty : and the holy Ghost almighty.

And yet they are not three almighties : but one almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son God : and the Holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods : but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord and the Holy Ghost Lord.

And yet not three Lords : but one Lord.

For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity : to acknowledge every person by himself to be God and Lord.

So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion to say there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created, nor begotten.

Quicunque vult.

The Son is of the Father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Son, not three Sons: one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is afore or after other: none is greater or less than another.

But the whole three persons are co-eternal together: and co-equal.

So that in all things as is aforesaid: the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved: must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation, that he also believe rightly the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we believe and confess: that our Lord Jesus Christ the Son of God is God and Man.

God of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and Man of the substance of his Mother, born in the world.

Perfect God and perfect Man: of a reasonable soul, and humane flesh subsisting.

Equal to the Father, as touching his Godhead: and inferior to the Father, as touching his Manhood.

Who although he be God and Man, yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the Manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substance: but by unity of person.

The Litany

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man :
so God and man is one Christ,

Who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell : rose again the third day from the dead,

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty : from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies : and shall give account for their own works.

And they that have done good, shall go into life everlasting: and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholick Faith: which, except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Answer.

A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: for being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of Grace.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sin: and Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the water side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His leaf also shall not wither: and he shall not be cut down, nor shall he perish.

5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

8 Desire of me, and I shall giue thee the Heathen for thine inheritance: and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruite them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potters vessel.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing:

with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perithe multitude of their ungodliness, for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee

Psal. vi.

Domine ne in furore.

O Lord rebuke me not in thine indignation: nei-

Month. The i. day.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weary:
O Lord heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore troubled: but Lord, how long wilt thou punish me?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembereth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning: every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall be turned back and put to shame suddenly.

Domine Deus. Psal. vij.

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I have delivered him that without any cause was mine enemy;

7 And so shall the Congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift up thy self again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people, give sentence with me O Lord: according to my righteousness, and according to the innocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the ungodly come to an end: but guide thou the Just.

10 For the righteous God trieth the very heart and reins.

11 My help cometh of God: which preserveth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day.

13 If a man will not turn he will robet his blood, he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

15 Behold he travaileth with mischief: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth ungodliness.

16 He hath graven and digged up a pit: and is fallen himself into the destruction that he made for others.

2 Out of the mouth of very Babes and Sucklings hast thou obtained strength, because of thy enemies: that thou mightest kill the enemy and abenger.

3 For I will consider thy Heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the Moon and the Stars which thou hast ordained.

4 What is Man, that thou art mindful of him: and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower than the Angels: to crown him with glory and worship.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subjection under his Feet.

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness: and minister true judgement unto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: when a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me up from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the Daughter of Sion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgement: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

2 The ungodly for his own lust doth persecute the pooz: let them be taken in the crafty williness that they have imagined.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his own hearts desire: and speaketh good of the covetous, whom God abhorreth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous, thy judgments are far above out of his sight: and therefore deseth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Lush, I shall never be cast down: there shall no harm happen unto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is ungodliness and vanity.

8 He sitteth lurking in the thiebish corners of the streets: and proudly in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set against the pooz.

13 Arise, O Lord God, and lift up thine hand: forget not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God while he doth say in his heart, Lush, thou God carest not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seen it: for thou beholdest ungodliness and wronging.

16 That thou mayst take the matter into the hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendless.

17 Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious: take away his ungodliness, and thou shalt find none.

18 The Lord is King for ever and ever: and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord thou hast heard the desire of the poor: thou preparest their heart, and thine ear hearkeneth thereunto.

9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O King of heaven: when we call upon thee.

Domine, in virtute tua. Psal. xxi.
The King shall rejoyce in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.

2 Thou hast given him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt present him with the blessings of goodness: and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life: even for ever and ever.

5 His honour is great in thy salvation: glory and great toughness shalt thou lay upon him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity: and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

7 And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most High he shall not miscarry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth: and their seed from the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device, as they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 We thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

Evening } } Psal. xxii.

M<sup>p</sup> God, my God, (look upon me) why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their head, saying,

8 We trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of my mothers womb: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet upon my mothers breasts.

10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born: thou art my God even from my mothers womb.

11 I go not far from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help me.

12 Many open are come about me: fat Bulls of Bashan inclose me on every side.

13 They gape upon me with their mouths: as it were a ramping and roaring Lyon.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

Month. The iv. day.

15 My strength is dried up like a posserd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16 For many dogs are come about me: and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They pierced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking upon me.

18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my kesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the Dog.

21 Save me from the Lions mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the Unicorns.

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 O praise the Lord ye that fear him: magnifie ye him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear him all ye seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poor, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called unto him he heard him.

25 My praise is of thee in the great congregations: my voices will I perform in the sight of them that fear thee.

26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied: they that seek after the Lord shall praise him: your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselves and be turned unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the Kingdom is the Lords: and he is the Governour among the people.

29 All such as be set upon earth, have eaten and worshipped.

Month: The v. day.

30 All they that go down into the dust, shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickned his own soul.

31 My seed shall serbe him: they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the teachers shall declare his righteousness: unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.

Dominus regit me: Psal. xxiii.

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

2 He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort,

3 He shall comfort my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his names sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the halley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy loving kindness and mercy shall follow me, all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

4 Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart: and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him :
even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors : and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory? it is the Lord, strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battel.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye

10 Who is the King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Ad te, Domine. Psal. xxv.

Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul, my God,
I will put my trust in thee. O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed : but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy ways, O Lord : and teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth and learn me : for thou art the God of my salvation, in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies : and thy loving kindness which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth : but according to thy mercy shew upon me, O Lord for thy goodness sake.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord : therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that be meek shall he guide in judgment :
and such as be gentle, them shall he learn his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth :
unto such as keep his Covenant and his testimonies.

10 For the names sake, O Lord, be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

Month. The vi. day.

12 His soul shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherit the land.

13 The secret of the Lord is among them that fear him: and he will shew them his Covenant.

14 Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord: for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am desolate and in misery.

16 The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.

17 Look upon my aduersity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

18 Consider my enemies how many they are: and they bear a rancorous hate against me.

19 O keep my soul and deliberate me: let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.

20 Let perfectness and righteous dealing wait upon me: for my hope hath been in thee.

21 Deliber Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

4 I have not dwelt with vain persons: neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

5 I have hated the congregation of the wicked: and will not sit among the ungodly.

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency, O Lord: and so will I go to thine altar.

my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

foes, come upon me to eat up my flesh: they humbled and fell.

3 Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

4 One thing have I desired of the Lord which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord, all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me upon a rock of stone.

6 And now shall he lift up mine head, above mine enemies round about me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblapraises unto the Lord.

the Lord taketh me up.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in the right way : because of mine enemies.

14 Deliber me not over unto the will of mine ad-against me and such as speak wrong.

15 I should utterly have fainted : but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

mercy seat of thy holy Temple.

3 Pluck not me away ( neither destroy me ) with the ungodly and wicked doers : which speak friend-hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds, and accor-

4 It is the Lord that ruleth the sea, the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the Cedar trees: yea the Lord breaketh the Cedars of Lebanon.

6 He made them also to skip like a Calf: Lebanon also and Sydon like a young Unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire: the voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness, yea, the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Cadan.

8 The voice of the Lord maketh the binds to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes: in his temple doth every man speak of his honour.

9 The Lord sitteth above the water flood: and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

10 The Lord shall give strength unto his people: the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Monthly The vi. day

2 O Lord my God, I cryed unto thee: and thou hast healed me.

3 Thou Lord hast brought my soul out of hell: thou hast kept my life from them that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord, O ye saints of his: and give thanks unto him for a remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be removed: thou Lord of the goodness hast made my hill so strong.

7 Thou dost turn thy face from me: and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I unto thee, O Lord: and gat me unto my Lord right humbly.

9 What profit is there in my blood: when I go down to the pit?

10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee: or shall it declare thy truth?

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord, be thou my helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heaviness into joy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.

hast redeemed me, O Lord thou God of truth.

10 I have hated them that hold of superstitious ba-

21 O how plentiful is the goodness which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee even before the sons of men.

22 Thou shalt hide them privately by thine own presence, from the reproving of all men: thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle, from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong City.

24 And when I made haste I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my prayer: when I cryed unto thee.

Why boasted thou thy self, thou tyrant: that thou canst do mischief?

2 Whereas the goodness of God endureth yet daily:

3 Thy tongue imagined wickedness: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.

4 Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness: to talk of lies more than righteousness.

5 Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwellings, and root thee out of the land of the living.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and fear: and shall laugh him to scorn.

8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted to the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

9 As for me, I am like a green Olive tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ever and ever.

10 I will always give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy name, for thy Saints like it well.

5 Are they not without understanding that touch wickedness: eating up my people as if they would eat bread: they have not called upon God.

6 They were afraid where no fear was: for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee: thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 That the salvation were given unto Israel out of Zion: That the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me : and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a dove : for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I get me away far off : and remain in the wilderness.

8 I would make haste to escape : because of the stormy wind and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and hide them : for I have spied unrighteousness and strife in the City.

10 Day & night they go about within the walls thereof : mischief also & sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is therein : deceit and guile go not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour : for then I could have borne it.

13 Neither was it my adversary that magnified himself against me : for then (peradventure) I would have hid my self from him.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, my shame, and my dishonour : mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal : and let the things that should have been for their wealth, be unto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not : and euer bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation upon them : and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be bold : and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to another : and not come into thy righteousness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living : and not be written among the Righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness, thy help, O God, shall lift me up.

31 I will praise the name of God with a song : and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the Lord : better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this and be glad : seek ye after God, and your soul shall live.

34 For the Lord heareth the poor : and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heaven and earth praise him : the sea and all that moveth therein.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the Cities of Juda : that men may dwell there and have it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it : and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

3 The mountains also shall bring peace : and the little hills righteousness unto the people.

4 He shall keep the simple folk by their right : defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong-doer.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the Sun and Moon endureth : from one generation to another.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so bolden with pride: and overwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they do when what they list.

13 All the day long have I ben punished : and 14 Yea, and I had almost said even as they : but lo, then should I have condemned the generation of 15 Then thought I to understand this : but it was too hard for me,

16 Until I went into the sanctuary of God : then understood I the end of these men :

17 Namely how thou dost set them in slippery

6 At thy rebuke O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are fallen.

Audite, o populi.

Hear my labe, O my people: incline your eares unto the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old;

3 Which we have heard and known: and such as our fathers have told us;

4 That we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done.

5 We made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a labe: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children;

6 That their posterity might know it: and the children which were yet unborn.

7 To the intent that when they came up: they might shew their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his commandments;

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation, a generation that set not their hearts aright, and whose spirit cleaveth not stedfastly unto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim: who being armed and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battel.

11 They

Moneth The xv. day.

11 They kept not the covenant of God: & would not walk in his wayes.

12 But forgot what he had done: and the wonderful works that he had shewed them.

13 Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: when in the field of Zian.

14 He divided the sea, and let them go through: he made the waters to stand on a heap.

15 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the flinty rock, so that it gushed out like the rivers:

18 Yet for all this, they sinned more against him, and provoked the most high in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.

20 They spoke against God also, saying: Shall God prepare us flesh in the wilderness?

21 He smote the flinty rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streams flowed withall: but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up a very displeasure against Israel:

23 Because they believed not in God: and put not their trust in his help.

24 So he commanded the clouds above: and opened the doors of heaven.

25 He rained down manna also upon them for meat: and gave them food from heaven.

26 No man did eat angels food: for he sent them meat enough.

27 He caused the east wind to blow under them: and through his power he brought in the south-west wind.

28 He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust, and feathered fowls like as the fowls of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents: where they were about their habitation.

30 So they did eat, and were filled, for he gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But while the meat was yet in their mouths, the wrath of God came upon them, and he slew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they smied yet more: and beliebed not his monstrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he slew them, they sought him, and turned them early, and enquired after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their strength: and that the high God was their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him, neither continued they steadfast in his covenant.

38 But he was so merciful, that he forgave their iniquities: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to be kindled.

Moneth. The xv. day.

40 For he considered that they were but flesh:
and that they were even a wind that passeth away and cometh not again.

41 Many a time did they provoke him in the wilderness: and grieved him in the desert.

42 They turned back and tempted God: and thowed the holy Due in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemy.

44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt:
and his wonders in the fields of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drink of the Rivers.

46 He sent lice among them, and devoured them
: and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gave their fruit unto the caterpillars: and their labour unto the grasshopper.

48 He destroyed their vines with hail-stones:
and their mulberry-trees with the frost.

49 He smote their cattel also with hail-stones:
and their flocks with hot thunderbolts.

50 He cast upon them the fierceness of his wrath, anger, displeasure and trouble: and sent his angels among them.

51 He made a way to his indignation and spared their soul from death, but gave their life over to pestilence.

52 And smote all the first born in Egypt: the principal and mightiest in the dwellings of them.

53 But as for his own people, he led them forth as sheep: and carried them in the wilderness like sheep.

54 He brought them out safely, that they should not fear: and overthrowed their enemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of the sanctuary: even to his mountain which he purchased with his own right hand.

56 We cast out the heathen also before them: and caused their Land to be divided among them for an heritage: and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted and displeased the most high God: and kept not his testimonies.

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: flitting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their bill-altars: and provoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and took sore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsook the tabernacle in Gilgal: he left the tent that he had pitched amongst them.

62 We delivered their power into captivity: and their beauty into the enemies hands.

63 We gave his people over also unto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.

65 Their priests were slain with the sword: and there were no widows to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord swathed as one out of sleep: and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 We smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 We refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

71 He chose Dauid also his seruant : and took him away from the shepolds.

72 As he was following the ebes great with young ones, he took him : that he might feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithfull & true heart :
and ruled them pzidently with all his power.

2 Take the Psalm, bring hither the Tabret: the merry Harp, with the Lute.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast day.

4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

6 I eased his shoulder from the burden: and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

7 Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee: and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.

8 I proved thee also at the waters of strife.

9 Fear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken unto me.

10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not hear my voice: and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts lusts: and let them follow their own imaginations.

14 O that my people would have hearkened unto me: for if Israel had walked in my wayes, 15 I should soon have put down their enemies: and turned my hand against their adversaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should have been found liars: but their time should have endured for ever.

Moneth. The xvi. day.

17 He should haue fed them also with the finest wheat flower: and with honey out of the flinty rock should I haue satisfied thee.

Evening. Psal. lxxxii.

Prayer. Deus stetit in Synag.

God standeth in the Congregation of Princes:
He is a iudge among Gods.

2 How long will ye giue wrong judgment, and accept the persons of the ungodly?

3 Defend the poore and fatherless: for that such as be in need and necessity haue right.

4 Deliuer the outcast and poore: save them from the hand of the ungodly.

5 They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darkness: all the foundations of the earth be out of course.

6 I haue said, ye are gods: and ye are all children of the most High.

7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the Princes.

8 Arise, O God, and iudge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all the heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus, quis similis. Psal. Lxxxiii.

Hold not thy tongue, O God, keep not still thy silence: refrain not thy self, O God.

2 For to thine enemies make a murmuring and they that hate thee, haue lifted up their heads.

3 They haue imagined craftily against the people: and taken counsel against thy secret ones.

4 They haue said, Come, and let us cut them out, that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Moneth. The xvi. day.

5 For they have cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites and Amalekites: with the Moabites and Hagarens.

7 Gebal and Ammon, and Amalek: the Philistines with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is joyned with them: and hath holpen the children of Lot.

9 But do thou unto them as unto the Midianites, unto Sisera and to Jabin at the brook Kison.

10 Which perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them and their Princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their Princes like as Zeba and Zalmanna.

12 Which say, Let us take to our selves the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like to a whet: and as the stubble before the wind.

14 Like as the fire that burneth up the woodman: as the flame that consumeth the mountains.

15 Persecute them euer so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seek thy name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed euer more: and more: let them be put to shame, and perish.

18 And they shall know, that thou (whose name is J E H O V A H: ) art only the most High over all the earth.

Quam dilecta tabernacula! Psal. lxxxiv.

the Courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh re-joyce in the living God.

3 Pea, the Sparrow hath found her an house, and the Swallow a nest where she may lay her young :
when thine Altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee :
in whose heart are thy ways.

6 Which going through the vale of misery, use it for a well: and the pools are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength : and unto the God of Gods appeareth every one of them in Zion.

8 O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer: hearken,
O God of Jacob.

9 Behold, O God our defender : and look upon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For one day in thy Courts is better than a thousand.

11 I had rather be a doorekeeper in the house of my God : than to dwell in the Tents of ungodliness.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence, the Lord will give grace and worship: and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.

13 O Lord God of Hosts, blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti Domine. Psal. lxxxv.

[ Lord, thou art become gracious unto the land, thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob

Moneth. The xvii. day.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offences of thy people: and covered all their sins.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy self from thy wrathful indignation.

4 Turn us then, O God, our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from us.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again and quicken us: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his Saints, that they turn not again.

9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

12 Peace, the Lord shall shew loving kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him: and shall direct his going in the way.

Prayer.

Psal. lxxxvi.

Inclina Domine.

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me: for I am poor and in misery.

2 Preserve thou my soul, for I am holy, my God: save the servant that putteth his trust in thee.

Moneth. The xvii. day.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I will call daily upon thee.

4 Comfort the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou Lord art good and gracious: and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer: and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among the Gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: there is not one that can do as thou doest.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come & worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth: O taste my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy name.

12 I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will praise thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy towards me: & thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me: & the congregations of naughty men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eyes.

15 But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

16 O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy on me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of thy handmaid.

17 Shew some good token upon me for good, that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed because thou, Lord, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Her foundations are upon the holy hills : The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

2 Very excellent things are spoken of thee, thou city of God.

3 I will think upon Mahab and Babylon : with them that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also : and they of Tyre, with the Moorians, lo, there was he born.

5 And of Zion it shall be reported, That he was born in her : and the most high shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall rehearse it when he visiteth the people, that he was born there.

7 The singers also and trumpeters shall be rehearse : all my fresh springs shall be in thee.

Domine Deus salutaris. Psal. lxxxviii.

O Lord God of my salvation, I have cryed day and night before thee : O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear unto my calling.

2 For my soul is full of trouble : and my life doth abhorth nigh unto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit : and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that be wounded, and lye in the grave : which be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hands.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit : in a place of darkness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation loveth hard upon me : and thou hast bered me with all thy storms.

7 Thou

8 I am so fast in prison, that I cannot get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving kindness be shewed in the grave: or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark: and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Unto thee have I cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul: and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to dye: (even from my youth up) thy terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.

16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me: and the fear of thee hath undone me.

17 They came round about me daily like waters: and compassed me together on every side.

18 My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid my acquaintance out of my sight.

Prayer. Misericordias Dom.

How long shall he allow of the loving kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be shewing thy truth, from one generation to another.

Moneth. The xvii. day.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen: I have sworn unto David my servant.

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever: and set up thy throne from one generation to another.

5 O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the Saints.

6 For who is he among the clouds, that shall be compared unto the Lord?

7 And what is he among the Gods, that shall be like unto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the council of the Saints: and to be had in reverence of all that are about him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto the: thy truth (most mighty Lord) is on every side.

10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the North and the South Lebanon and Hermon shall rejoice in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousness and equity is the habitation of thy seat: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people, O Lord, that can rejoice in thee: they shall walk in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight shall be daily in thy Name: of thy righteousness shall they make their boast.

Moneth. The xvii. day.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy loving kindness thou shalt lift up our horns.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy One in Israel is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometimes in visions unto thy saints, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

21 I have found David my servant: with my help he hath anointed him.

22 My hand shall hold him fast: and my arm shall strengthen him.

23 The enemy shall not be able to do him violence:
the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

24 I will smite his enemies before his face:
and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth also and my mercy shall be told him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 We shall call me, Thou art my father: my God and my strong salvation,

28 And I will make him my first born: higher than the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore:
and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seed also will I make to endure for ever:
and his throne as the days of heaven.

31 But if his children forsake my law: and walk not in my judgments,

32 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments: I will visit their offences with the rod, and their sin with scourges.

utterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to fail.

36 He shall stand fast for evermore as the Moon: and as the faithful holiness in Heaven.

37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anointed: thou art displeased at him.

38 Thou hast broken the covenant of thy servants: and cast his crown to the ground.

39 Thou hast overthrowen all his hedges: and broken his strong holds.

40 All they that go by, spoil him, and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.

41 Thou hast set up the right-hand of his enemies: and made all his adversaries to rejoice.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword: and givest him not the victory in the battel.

43 Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his throne down to the ground.

44 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: and covered him with dishonour.

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy self, for ever: and shall thy wrath burn like fire?

46 I remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?

47 What man is he that liveth and shall not see death: and shall he deliver his own soul from the hand of hell?

48 Lord, where are thy old loving-kindnesses, which thou swearst unto David in thy truth?

Psal.

xc.

Prayer.

Dominic, refugium.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or eber the earth or the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayst, Come again ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years are in thy sight but as yesterday: seeing that it is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly as the grass.

6 In the morning it is green: groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid of thy wrathful indignation.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee: and our secret sins in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 Teach us so to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Moneth. The xviii. day.

13 Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last : and be gracious unto thy servants.

14 Satisfie us with thy mercy, & that soon : shall we rejoyce & be glad all the days of our life.

15 Comfort us again, and after the time that thou hast plagued us : and for thy years wherein we have suffered aduersity.

16 Shew thy servants thy work : and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us : prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy work.

Qui habitat. Psal. xci.

Who so dwelleth under the defence of the most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter : and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers : his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid of any terror by night : nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness : or for the sickness that destroyeth at the noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand : but they shall not come nigh thee.

8 Pea with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the mighty.

9 For thou Lord art my hope : thou hast set thy house of defence very high.

thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt go upon the Lyon and Adder :
thou shalt tread upon the Lyon and the Dragon : thou shalt tread under thy feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore shall I deliver him : I shall set him up, because he hath known my Name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will hear him :
yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliver him,
and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfy him : and I will set him upon his Father's throne.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal. xcii.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High.

2 To tell of thy loving kindness early in the morning : and of thy truth in the night season.

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute : upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad through the works : and I will rejoyce in giving praises for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy works : and thy thoughts are very deep.

6 An unwise man doth not well consider them :
and a fool doth not understand it.

7 When the ungodly are given up to the grave, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish, then

Moneth. The xviii. day:

Shall they be destroyed for ever, but thou Lord most high for evermore.

8 For to thine enemies, O Lord, to thine enemies shall perish: and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.

9 But my horn shall be exalted like the horn of unicorn: for I am anointed with fresh oil.

10 Plus eye shall see his desire upon his enemies: and mine ear shall hear his desire of wicked that rise up against me.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a Palm tree and shall spread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as he planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the Courts of the house of our God.

13 They also shall bring forth more fruit in the age: and shall be fat and well liking.

14 That they may shew unto all the Lord strength is: and that there is no unrighteousness in him.

Evening Psal. xciii.

Prayer. Dominus regnavit.

The Lord is king, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength.

2 We have made the round world secure: that it cannot be moved.

3 Ever since the world began, hath thy seat been prepared: thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice: the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the Sea are mighty, and rage boisterous: yet the Lord was dwelled on high is mighty.

acts becometh thy house for ever.

Deus ultionum. Psal. xclv.

O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth, thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thy self.

2 Arise thou Judge of the world: and reward the proud after their deservings.

3 Lord, how long shall the ungodly: how long shall the ungodly triumph?

4 How long shall all wicked doers speak so offe nsively: and make such proud boasting?

5 They smite down thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow and the stranger: and put the fatherless to death.

7 And yet they say, Lush, the Lord shall not see:
neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Take heed, ye unwise among the people: O ye fools, when will ye understand?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear: or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

10 Or he that nutureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall he not punish?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vain.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord: and teachest him thy Law.

13 That thou mayest give him patience in time of tribulation: until he be delivered up for the ungodly.

14 For the Lord will not cast his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 Until righteousness turn again into judg ment: all such as be true in heart shall follow it.

Moneth. The xix. day.

16 Who will rise up with me against the wicked:
or who will take my part against the evil doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me, it had not fallen so: but my soul had been put to silence.

18 But when I said, my foot hath slipped: the mercy, O Lord, held me up.

19 In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart, thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

20 Wilt thou have any thing to do with the foul of wickedness: which imagineth mischief as a law?

21 They gather them together against the soul of the righteous: and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.

23 We shall recompence them their wickedness, and destroy them in their own malice: yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them,

Morning. Psal. xc.

Prayer. Venite, exultemus.

O Come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the strength of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew our praises glad in him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hands are all the corners of the earth:
and the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and fall down: and kiss before the Lord our God.

Month. The xix. day.

7 For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hands.

8 To say if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation: and said, It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways.

Cantate Domino canticum. Psal. xvi.

1 Sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord all the whole earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord and praise his Name: he telling of his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour unto the heathen: and his wonders unto all people.

4 For the Lord is great, & cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared than all gods.

5 As for the gods of the heathen, then be but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Corp and worship are before him: power and honour are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring presents and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

11 Let the Heavens rejoyce, and let the earth be glad: let the Sea make a noise, & all that therein is.

12 Let the field be joyfull, & all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoyce before the Lord.

13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus Regnavit. Psal. xcvii.

The Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the Isles may be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his seat.

3 There shall go a fire before him: and burn up his enemies on every side.

4 His lightnings gave shine unto the world: the earth saw it and was afraid.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens have declared his righteousness: and all the people have seen his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that worship carved images, and that delight in vain gods: worship him all ye gods.

8 Zion heard of it and rejoiced: and the daughters of Judah were glad, because of thy judgments, O Lord.

9 For thou, O Lord, art higher than all that are in the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the Lord, see that ye hate the thing that is evil: the Lord preserveth the souls of his Saints, he shall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.

Month. The xix. day.

11 There is springing up a light for the righteous :
and ioyful gladdnes for such as are true hearted.
12 Reioyce in the Lord ye righteous : and giue thanks for a remembrance of his holiness.

Evening } Psal. xcviij.

Prayer. } Cantate Domino.

Sing unto the Lord a new song, for he hath done marvellous things.

2 With his own right hand, and with his holy arm, hath he gotten himself the victory,

3 The Lord declareth his salvation: his right-eousnes hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heaven.

4 He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

5 Shew your selves ioyful unto the Lord, all ye that sing, reioyce, and giue thanks.

6 Praise the Lord upon the Harp: sing to the Lord with a Psalter of Thanksgiving,

7 With trumpets also and Matrons: O shew your selves ioyful before the Lord your King.

8 Let the Sea make a noise, and all that therein the round world, and they that dwell therein, 9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the mountaine be ioyful together before the Lord; for he is to iudge the earth.

10 With righteousness shall he iudge the world:
the people with equity.

Domineus regnavit. Psal. xcix.

11 The Lord is King, be the people never so faint: he steech between the Ephraim & the tribe never so iniquities.

Month. The xix. day.

2 The Lord is great in Sion: and high aboue all people.

3 They shall giue thanks unto thy Name which is great, wonderful, and holp.

4 The Kings power loveth iudgment, thou hast prepared equity: thou hast executed iudgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 O magnifie the Lord our God: and fall down before his footstool, for he is holp.

6 Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his name: they called upon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake unto them out of the cloudy Pillar for they kept his testimonies, and the law that he gave them.

8 Thou heardest them, O Lord our God, thou forgavest them, O God: and punishedst their own inventions.

9 O magnifie the Lord our God, & worship him upon his holp hill: for the Lord our God is holp.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. c.

O Be ioyful in the Lord, all ye lands, serve the Lord with gladness: and come before his presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God, it is that hath made us, and not we our selues: we are his people, and the Sheep of his pasture.

Misericordiam. Psal. ci.

My long shall be of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me have understanding in the way of godliness.

3 When wilt thou come unto me: I will walk in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand: I hate the sins of unthankfulness, there shall no such come unto me.

5 A forward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Who so privily slandereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Who so hath also a proud look, and high stomach, I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes look in to such as be faithful in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Who so leadeth a godly life, he shall be my servant.

10 There shall no deceitful person dwell in my house: he that tells lies shall not tarry in my sight.

11 I shall soon destroy all the ungodly that are in the land: that I may root out all wicked doers from the Earth of the Lord.

Prayer.

Psal. cii.

Domine exaudi.

Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of trouble: lest mine enemies catch me when I call, O hear me and that right soon.

Month. The xx. day.

3 For my days are consumed away like smokes:
4 my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down; and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning: my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pelican in the wilderness:
and like an Owl that is in the Desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow that sitteth upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies rebelle me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me, are sworn together against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation, and wrath: for thou hast taken me up, & cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Zion: for it is time that thou have mercy on her: for the time is come.

14 And when thy servants think upon her stones, and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty.

16 When the Lord shall build up Zion: and when his glory shall appear.

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor, destitute: and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

Month. The xx. day.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanctuary :
out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as be in captivity : and deliver the children appointed unto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion : and his worship at Jerusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together :
and the Kingdoms also to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my journey : and hastened my days.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the works of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure :
they shall wax old as doth a Garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed : but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue :
and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. ciii.

Praise the Lord, O my Soul : and all that is within me praise his holy name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soul : and forget not all his benefits.

3 Which forgiveth all thy sin : and healeth all thine infirmities.

4 Which saveth thy life from destruction : and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindness.

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things :
making thee young and full as an Eagle.

Month. The xx. day.

6 The Lord executeth righteoulness and iudgement for all them þe are oppressed with wrong.

7 He sheweth his ways unto Moles: his works unto the children of men.

8 The Lord is full of compassion, and mercy: long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

11 For look how high the Heaven is in comparison of the Earth: so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him.

12 Look how wide also the East is from the West: so far hath he set our sins from us.

13 Men, like as a father pitieth his own children: even so is þe Lord merciful unto them þe fear him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The dayes of man are but as grass: flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone: the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him: and his righteousness upon childrens children.

18 Even upon such as keep his covenant: and think upon his Commandments to do them.

21 O praise the Lord all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord O my soul.

thou art become exceeding glorious, thou art cloathed with majesty and honour.

with a garment: and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.

3 Which layeth the beams of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind.

4 He maketh his Angels spirits: and his Ministrers a flaming fire.

5 He laid the foundation of the earth: that it never should move at any time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep, like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afraid.

8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath, even unto the place which thou hast appointed for them.

9 Thou hast set them in their bounds, which they shall not pass: neither turn again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the Rivers:
which run among the hills.

13 He watereth the hills from above: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

14 He bringeth forth grass for the cattle: and green herb for the service of men.

15 That he may bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make him a chearful countenance, and bread to strengthen mans heart.

16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sap, even the Cedars of Libanus which he hath planted.

17 Wherein the birds make their nests: and the fir-trees are a dwelling for the Stork.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats: and so are the stony rocks for the Conies.

19 He appointed the Moon for certain seasons: and the Sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou madest darkness & it might be night, wherein all the beasts of the forest do move.

21 The Lions roaring after their prey do seek their meat at God.

22 The Sun riseth and they get them away together: and lay them down in their dens.

23 Pan goeth forth to his work: and to his labour until the evening.

24 O Lord how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy fishes.

25 So is the great and wide Sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There is the Ships: and there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pasture therein.

27 These wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shall be made : & thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious majesty of the Lord shall endure forever : & the Lord shall rejoyce in his work.

32 The earth shall tremble at the look of him :
if he do but touch the hills they shall smoke.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live :
I will praise my God, while I have any being :

34 And so shall my words please him : and my 35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of

O Give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name : tell the people what things he hath done.

2 Let your songs be of him and praise him : & let your talk be of all his wondrous works.

3 Rejoyce in his holy Name : let the heart of them rejoyce that seek the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord and his strength : seek his face evermore.

5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done : his wonders, and the Judgments of his mouth.

Month. The xxi. day,

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant: ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the world.

8 He hath been alway mindful of his covenant and promise: that he made to a thousand generations.

9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham: and the oath that he swore unto Isaac.

10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a law: and to Israel for an everlasting testament.

11 Saying, unto thee will I give the land of Canaan: the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there was yet but a few of them: and they strangers in the land.

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: but removed even Kings for their sakes.

15 Touch not mine Anointed: and do my Prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he railed for a dearth upon the land: and destroyed all the provision of bread.

17 But he had sent a man before them: even Joseph, which was sold to be a bond-servant.

18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks: the iron cutred into his flesh.

19 Until the time came, when his cause was known: the word of the Lord toled him.

20 The King sent and delivered him: the prince of the people let him go free.

21 He made him Lord also of his house, and ruler over all his substance.

22 That he might inform his Princes after his will: and teach his Senators wisdom.

Month. The xxi. day.

23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 Whose heart turned; so that they hated his people: and dealt untruly with his servants.

26 Then he sent Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and it was dark: and they were not obedient to his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood: and slew their fishes.

30 Their land brought forth frogs: pea, even in their Kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gave them hail-stones for rain: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and fig-trees: and dectroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the Grass hoppers came, and Caterpillers innumerable: and did eat up all the grasse in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote the first-born in their land: even the chief of their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: there was not one feeble person among their Tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering: and fire to give light in the night season.

Month. The xxi. day.

39 At their desire he brought Quails : and he filled them with the bread of heauen.

40 He opened the rock of stone, and y<sup>e</sup> waters flowed out : so that the Rivers ran in dry places.

41 For why : He remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his seruant.

42 And he brought forth his people with ioy : and his chosen with gladness.

43 And gave them the land of the heathen : & they took the labours of the people in possession.

44 That they might keep his statutes : and obserue his laws.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Evening 7 § Psal. cvi.

Prayer. § 2 Confitemini Domino.

O Give thanks unto y<sup>e</sup> Lord : for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Who can expresse the noble acts of the Lord : shew forth all his praise ?

3 Blessed are they that alwaies keep iudgment : and do righteousness.

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to y<sup>e</sup> fauour thou hast borne to thy people : O visit me with thy saluation.

5 That I may see the felicity of thy chosen : & reioyce in the gladness of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.

6 We haue sinned with our fathers : we haue done amiss, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodness in remembrance : but were disobedient at the Red Sea, at the Red Sea.

8 Psal.

Month. The xxi. day.

8 Forthwith he helped them so: his Namesake: that he might make his power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea, & it was dried up: so he led them throug h deep as throug a wilderness.

10 And he saved them from their adversaries land: & delivered them from h hand of the enemy.

11 As for them h troubled them, the waters overwhelped them: there was none of them left.

12 Then believed they: his words: and sang praise unto him.

13 But within a while they forgot his works: and would not abide his counsell.

14 But lust came upon them in the Wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their desire: and sent manuels withall into their soul.

16 They angered Moses also in the Tents: and Aaron the Saint of the Lord.

17 So h wrath opened, & he swallowed up Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company: and the flame burnt up the ungodly.

19 They made a Calf in Horeb: and worshipped the molten Image.

20 Thus they turned their glory into the similitude of a Calf that eateth hay.

21 And they forgot God their Saviour: which had done so great things in Egypt.

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearful things by the Red Sea.

23 So he said he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his servant stood before him in the gap: to turn away his wrathful indignation, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land:

Month. The xxi. day.

25 But murmured in their tents : and hearkened not unto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lift he up his hand against them : to overthrow them in the wilderness.

27 To cast out the seed among the Nations : and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves unto Baal Peor : and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own inventions : and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas and prayed : and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted to him for righteousness : amongst all posterities for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife : so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they provoked his spirit : so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the Heathen : as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the Heathen : and learned their works.

36 Inasmuch that they worshipped their Idols : which turned to their own decay : yea, they offered their sons and daughters unto Devils.

37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons, and of their daughters : whom they offered unto the Idols of Canaan, & the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their own works : & went a whoring with their own inventions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people : inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

Month. The xxii. day.

40 And he gave them over into the hands of the heathen: and they that hated them were lord over them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subjection.

42 Many a time did he deliver them, but they rebelled against him with their own inventions: and were brought down in their wickedness.

43 Nevertheless, when he saw their adversity, he heard their complaint.

44 He thought upon his covenant, and stirred them according to the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that had led them away captive, to let them go.

45 Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen: that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

1 Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.

2 And gathered them out of the lands: from the East, and from the West, from the North, and from the South.

3 They went astray in the wilderness, out of the way: and found no City to dwell in.

4 Hungry and thirsty: they had fainted in them.

5 So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble:

Month. The xxii. day.

7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the City where they dwell.

8 That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness; and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery and iron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsel of the most high.

12 He also brought down their heart through bitterness: they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

13 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.

14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bands in sunder.

15 That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass: and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offences: and because of their wickedness.

18 Their soul abhorred all kind of meat: and they were even at death's door.

19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.

20 He sent his word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.

21 That men would therefore praise the Lord his goodness: and declare the wonders that he hath done for the children of men.

22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters.

24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of their trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like as a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 When they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distress.

29 For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they be at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven, whither they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

32 That they would extol him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the Elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wilderness: and dryeth up the water springs.

34 A fruitful land maketh he barren: for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 Again he maketh the wilderness a standing water: and water springs of a dry ground.

Month. The xxii. day.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build a City to dwell in.

37 That they may sow the land: and plant Vineyards, to yield them fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their Cartel to decrease.

39 And again, when they are minished and brought low through oppression: through any plague or trouble.

40 Though he suffer them to be a while intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.

41 Yet helpeth he the pooz out of misery: and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consider this and rejoyce and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord: among the Nations.

4 For thy mercy is greater than the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Set up thy self, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: let the right hand save them, and hear thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will re-

Had not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the ungodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitful is opened upon me.

2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and sought against me without a cause.

3 For the love that I had unto them, lo, they take now my contrary part: but I give my self to prayer.

4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an ungodly man, to be ruler over them:
and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is given upon him, let him be

7 Let his days be few: and let another take his

8 Let his children be fatherless: and his wife a

9. Let his children be bagabonds, and beg their bread: let them seek it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath: and let the stranger spoil his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pity him: nor to have compassion on his fatherless children.

12 Let his posterity be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.

13 Let the wickedness of his father be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sin of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may root out the memorial of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his mind was not to do good: but persecuted the poor helpless man, that he may slay him that was bereaved at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him: he loved not blessing, therefore shall it be far from him.

17 He clothed himself with cursing, like as with a raiment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

18 Let it be unto him as the cloak that he hath upon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord to mine enemies: and to those that speak evil against my soul.

20. But deal thou with me. O Lord God, according to thy name: for sweet is thy mercy.

21 O deliver me, for I am helpless and poor: and my heart is wounded within me.

22 I go hence like the shadow that departeth: and am driven away as the Grasshopper.

23 My knees are weak through fasting: my flesh is dried up for want of fatness.

24 I became also a rebuke unto them: they that looked upon me shook their heads.

25 Help me, O Lord my God: and save me according to thy mercy.

26 And they shall know how that this is thy hand: and thou Lord hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet bless thou: and let them be confounded that rise up against me, but let thy servant rejoice.

28 Let my adversaries be clothed with shame: and let them cover themselves with their own confusion as with a cloak.

29 As for me, I will give the great thanks unto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude.

30 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor: to save his soul from unrighteous Judges.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.

O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising, thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For loe, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before: and laid thy hand upon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderful, and excellent for me: I cannot attain unto it.

6 Whither then shall I flee from thy spirit: or whither shall I go from thy presence?

7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there: if I go down to hell, thou art there also.
